[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, VA., May 6.—With the closing of the political campaign to-night the political leaders of both local factions contesting for supremacy in the city announce that an active and "red hot" campaign will be inaugurated throughout the eight wards of the city. It is expected, the fight will be the liveliest and closest in recent years. Both factions are confident of success.

The good government faction announce the beginning of their campaign on Thursday night, in Berkeley Ward, when a successor to Alderman Jones, who has resigned, expecting to remove to New York at an early date, will be nominated, and the candidates of the factions will make their first addresses, since the nominations.

As yet the anti-administration faction, commonly called the "ring," are to announce the opening meeting of the campaign, but it is thought that the first gun will be sounded one day next week, in the sixth ward.

Summer Normal School.

The announcement is made to-day that a summer normal school will be operated in Norfolk during the approaching vacation, beginning June 22nd.

Dr. J. A. C. Chandler, the Virginia historian, is to be the conductor of the school, and Superintendent R. A. Doble, of the local schools, will have the business management. It is declared that the curriculum to be arranged will include many of the best known educators of the State, as well as prominent speakers from other States. It is believed the attendance will be gratifying.

Crusade Against Cocaine.

Owing to the widespread evil in the Navy Department due to the use of cocaine, the local officials of the navy yard here are assisting in the crusade against its sale, and almost daily are causing the arrest of negroes and others charged with its sale to sailors.

Secret Service Officer Cutchins, who is leading the crusade for the department, assisted by the local police, have caused the arrest of Richard Lawrence, colored, charged with the sale of the drug to sailors. An investigation showed that Lawrence is employed at the Hanger drug store, and that he has been purloining the drug, retelling it to sailors.

DANIEL TO BE ORATOR.

Will Deliver Address at Unveiling of Mecklenburg Monument.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

BOYDTON, VA., May 6.—The unveiling of the beautiful Confederate bronze statue, standing in the courthouse square here, has been postponed to the Fourth of July next. The unveiling, it is intended, shall be an imposing ceremony, and as many old soldiers as possible will be urged to attend. Senator John W. Daniel has accepted an invitation to deliver the address. This announcement is a great favorite with the camp, as well as the people of Mecklenburg generally.

It was the purpose of the monument committee to unveil the statue during this month, but the financial disturbances of recent occurrence in this county have caused the committee to change their plans to a later date, when there would probably be less excitement, and the people in a happier frame of mind.

The Rev. Mr. Bosman, of the Market Street Methodist Church of Petersburg, Va., commenced a series of religious services here in the Methodist Church on Monday night, and will continue the service during the week. The Rev. J. A. Winn, the pastor of the church, is assisting Mr. Bosman.

Commonwealth Introduces Witnesses to Impeach Testimony of Accused.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

BEHOLD CITY, VA., May 6.—Upon opening of court this morning the cross-examination of Mrs. Peebles, on trial for the murder of her husband, began and continued for two hours.

Feature of the day was the Attorney General's testimony, in the morning, of the introduction of a number of witnesses from Lynchburg and Amherst, her former home. The defense introduced numerous witnesses from both places to prove the reputation for temperance and ill-temper of her husband as especially violent when drinking. The testimony of a colored man, the only eyewitness of the tragedy except her children, was also discredited.

Court adjourned at 5 o'clock, when the judge and counsel retired to consider instructions. These will be given to the jury at 10 o'clock, followed by the argument, which he has limited to four hours. There are three attorneys for the defense—Messrs. Sale and Withers and Judge Campbell, of Amherst, and Commonwealth's Attorney H. O. Humphreys for the prosecution.

TRY HALE AGAIN FOR KILLING GIRL

PROSECUTION WILL ENDEAVOR TO SHOW THAT IT WAS IMPOSSIBLE FOR GIRL TO SHOOT HERSELF.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BRISTOL, VA., May 6.—The second trial of Ack Hale, who is charged with having murdered Lillie Davis, the pretty Bristol girl who was found dying in East Hill Cemetery here one night in March, 1907, will be held in the Circuit Court at Flouville, Sullivan county, Tennessee, on the fourth Monday in this month. Both sides have announced ready, and it now appears that the case will be taken up as scheduled.

J. Harry Swan, Jr., who is to assist Attorney-General Harmon in the prosecution, has been conducting some experiments with a revolver as means of showing that the girl, who shot a bullet hole in her left breast, is due to commence in the Circuit Court at Flouville, Sullivan county, Tennessee, on the fourth Monday in this month. Both sides have announced ready, and it now appears that the case will be taken up as scheduled.

At the former trial a majority of the jury was in favor of a verdict of murder in the first degree. Only one of the jurors favored absolute acquittal.

FALL OF FIFTEEN FEET.

Mr. McKnight, Stepping Off Train in Danville, Very Narrow Escape.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, VA., May 6.—There seems to be no doubt that a large number of Democratic voters of the city refused to take part in the municipal primary yesterday, under the belief that by doing so they would thereby pledge themselves to vote for the nominee of the National Democratic Convention at Denver, delegates to the State Convention at Roanoke having been selected in the same primary.

This seems to be the only way to account for the fact that not more than one-third of the qualified voters took part in the election, despite the fact that it is held that those who did not vote for delegates to the State Convention would not be in any manner pledged to abide by the action of the Republican Party.

Opposition to Bryan.

The fact is, there are a large number of Democrats in Lynchburg who do not expect to support Bryan if he is nominated at the Denver convention, and rather than pledge themselves either directly or indirectly to do so by voting for the nomination of delegates.

It will be recalled that Mr. R. H. T. Adams, Jr., after having suggested as a delegate to the State convention, came out in a signed card, in which he stated that he could not go to the convention, if elected, because he was not a bona fide supporter.

A well known citizen of the suburbs declared to-day that he could not serve as a member of the Campbell County Committee, to which he was elected last week, because he expected to vote the Republican ticket.

This indicates something of the feeling in Lynchburg, and it is freely predicted on the streets that in event of Mr. Bryan's nomination, the Democrats will have a hard time to carry the city for him.

Dr. Smith in Council.

The vote in the primary for the annexed territory was light, many citizens, by reason of their having been in the county limits up to January 1st, having failed to pay the capitation tax, and being therefore ineligible to vote.

It is charged that it is brought into the county by fruit trees and shrubs from nurseries for planting.

It has been announced that hereafter train No. 35, on the Southern, will stop at this place. Heretofore this train has not been stopping at Amherst, but passengers for Danville and points south of that place, The new schedule will be a great convenience to Amherst people.

Eight delegates were also elected to the State Republican convention. The colored voters declare they will carry their grievance to the highest tribunals of the party for a hearing.
